START

Welcome to issue #162. This issue is pushing the back end of March, but I am determined that it will not slip into April and become another double issue. That's what I get for heading down to Eastbourne for a couple of days of gaming. It was two good days, too, with 20 games played.

I got my first play of Snow Tails, last year's game from the Lamont Brothers, and later on managed another, although in the second game I ended up converting my sled into matchwood rather than finishing the course. The Asmodee version of Snow Tails is due out in May. They weren't happy with the name at first, and ran a competition to find a new name. I believe the winner was Too Mush, and have to be thankful that they finally decided to go with the original name.

Another game I played was Mow, a simple card game that was available as a limited edition at Essen last year. It was echoes of 6 nimm! in that you are trying to avoid picking up cards with penalties on them. All cards have cows, and some have flies, which are the penalties. Cards are played in a single row, and to play a card to the row you must add a card to one end of the row, higher or lower than the current end cards. There are special cards that let you do other things, and you also get to decide whether the order of play is reversed when they are played. Good fun, nice and quick, and what do you know, just coming out in an unlimited edition.

If you are a Dominion fan, or would like to be, the main game has just come back into print. There is a big box expansion set due out any time now as well, but if you want an extra fix, you should head off to the BoardGameGeek store. They are currently taking orders for two promo cards. The cost is $5 for the cards and shipping anywhere in the world. I missed out on the first batch, but got an order in for the second batch that is due to ship mid-April. The two cards in the set are the Envoy and the Black Market.

With the Envoy, you reveal the top five cards of your draw deck, one of which is discarded, and you get to keep the rest. The trick is that the discard is chosen by the player on your left.

The Black Market gives you +2 to your spending power. You draw three cards from the top of the Black Market deck and may buy one of those immediately, with the other two going to the bottom of the deck. The Black Market deck is made at the start of the game, and contains one copy of each action card NOT in common use in the current game.

Rio Grande say that there is no intention to limit availability of these cards, so if you miss out on the second batch there should be a third, subject to demand. These are only available through the BoardGameGeek store, which can be found at store.boardgamegeek.com.

Ian D Wilson, designer of 1861, has published prototype information on a new game he is working on, currently known as 1812. This is an 18xx game for two to four players set in north eastern England. A game is just starting in Steve Thomas' zine ...mais n'est-ce pas la gare? This is becoming a common practice among private designers, who look for feedback on their design before finalising the design. The collection of files is just under 2.5MB and is available from the 18xx Yahoo group. If you're not a member of that group but are still interested, I could forward you a copy of the zip file via e-mail.

If you fancy attending my first-Saturday-of-the-month games day for April, remember to go to the village hall rather than my place, as TringCon takes precedence for April.

Looking ahead a couple of months, the third UK Games Expo will be taking place in Birmingham on June 5th/6th/7th. The 5th will be mostly role playing in the adjacent hotel, with the main event happening on the Saturday and Sunday. Heron Games will be there and are sponsoring the Settlers of Catan tournament this year, in conjunction with Mayfair Games. For more information, take a look at www.ukgamesexpo.co.uk.

I wonder how much trouble people have with viewing that site from work, given the appearance of 'sex' in the middles of 'ukgamesexpo'. We had instances of sites being blocked for that reason some years ago, but hopefully the blocking software is somewhat more intelligent these days.

Are you a fan of optical illusions? If so, try this one. The picture is of a Bengal Tiger in its natural surroundings. The question is - can you find the hidden tiger? Answer next time.

There are a couple of other illusions this issue, on pages 52 and 65.

Formula One is back in action, with the stewards getting busy from the start. I do hope this season turns out to be more about racing and less about rules lawyers. The first qualifying session was very close, which bodes well. As for Lewis Hamilton's problems with his car, Michael Schumacher had seasons that didn't start too well. The question is, can McLaren fix their problems quickly enough to give him a chance at defending his title successfully? Ignore the comments in the press about whether he will be able to defend his title. Of course he can defend it - it is whether he is successful or not that counts.

IN HONOR OF DOMINION ENTERING THE BOARDGAMEGEEK TOP FIVE GAMES, I'VE DECLARED THIS TO BE DOMINION WEEK.

YOU CAN'T DO THAT, JOEY.

ANYWAY, WE'LL START OUT BY DISCUSSING MINE STRATEGIES (COPPER TO SILVER OR SILVER TO GOLD?), FOLLOWED BY POSTING KILLER STRATEGIES TO THE UPCOMING 'SABOTEUR' CARD, THAT ONLY I KNOW ABOUT.

NO NO, THE SABOTEUR CARD IS ONLY A RUMOR, JOEY.

NO, IT'S REAL, I TELL YOU. I HAD A VISION.

YOU SNUCK INTO JAY TUMMELSON'S HOUSE AGAIN?

IT SOUNDS KIND OF PEDESTRIAN WHEN YOU SAY IT THAT WAY, LEO.

BOARD 2 PIECES

SO THEN I PLAYED THE 'SABOTEUR' AND WATCHED WITH GLEE AS MY OPPONENTS TRASHED VALUABLE CARDS.

JOEY, YOU'RE TEETERING ON THE EDGE.

WHAT EDGE? YOU THINK THAT JAY TUMMELSON'S SECURITY FORCE IS GOING TO HUNT ME DOWN AND QUIET ME?

RIO GRANDE IS ONE OF THE MOST POWERFUL ENTITIES IN THE BOARD GAME UNIVERSE. DO NOT MESS WITH THE RIO.

THAT'S SO SILLY, LEO. I CAN SAY ANYTHING--

ZAP

SAYING 'TOLD YOU SO' IS SO SATISFYING.

BOARD 2 PIECES

THE NEW ADVENTURES OF: TICHU TASK FORCE!

LET'S GO, B.B.! WHO'S OUR FOURTH? SAMMY?

NO, I HAVE A BETTER IDEA, BERT.

NO, B.B., WE CAN'T!

OH MY GOD, DON'T SAY IT, B.B.!

YES, TRICHU IS THE NAME, 3 PLAYERS IS THE GAME.

I AM SO OUTTA HERE.

WILL THEY FIND A FOURTH, OR WILL BERT, B.B. AND JERRY HAVE TO PLAY THE HIDEOUS MONSTROSITY KNOWN AS TRICHU FIND OUT NEXT TIME ON AN ALL NEW TICHU TASK FORCE!

BOARD 2 PIECES

THE CONTINUING ADVENTURES OF: TICHU TASK FORCE!

WHEN WE LAST LEFT OUR HEROES, THEY WERE CONSIDERING TRICHU: THE WORST TICHU VARIANT EVER.

SO YOU'RE SAYING THAT ONE OF US HAS A DUMMY PARTNER EACH HAND?

RIGHT. FOR INSTANCE, MINE WILL BE A PRETEND PLAYER AND YOURS WILL BE JERRY.

THIS IS STUPID.

AND THE DUMMY PARTNER CARDS ARE PLAYED FACE UP?

SURE, THAT WAY WE KNOW WHAT CAN BE PLAYED.

LET ME GET THIS STRAIGHT. SOMEONE ACTUALLY WROTE DOWN THESE OH-SO STUPID RULES?

So, what did happen here?

GAME OVER

1st	Don Smith	1,210	29.1%
2nd	Stephen Webb	1,144	27.5%
3rd	Mark Frueh	926	22.3%
4th	Pete Campbell	677	16.3%
5th	Willem Moene	204	4.9%

Stephen Webb (2nd): Well done to Don for plodding on - it does work sometimes. I cannot complain at an unexpected second in such an unsatisfactory conclusion. I made a really big error with the NYC and can only thank everyone except Don for not capitalizing. Thanks also to you Keith, as ever, for your sterling efforts.

Pete Campbell (4th): I knew I was in trouble early on when I failed to secure a second company, leaving the C&O stuck with two '3' trains. If I had got away with a forced '6' purchase, it would have been fine, in fact very fine as things turned out, but needless to say I had to buy a Diesel, putting me out of the game. What I had not appreciated early on was the knock-on affect on Mark and Willem of my forced diesel purchase. With the demise of the '4' trains they were also forced to purchase Diesels, hence ruining them as well. So with the three former front runners wrecked by the side of the track, and with Stephen disadvantaged by the 'operationally challenged' NYC, it was left to Don to pick up the honours! As for Willem's bankruptcy, it was probably the best thing to do, since it was unlikely that the result was going to change.

In reading my comments at the end of the last report it did seem that I was criticising Willem for engineering his own bankruptcy. I was literally just commenting. While he could have left the Diesel with the Erie, he would have stayed at the bottom after his fall from near the top, and the end result would probably have been very similar, just taken longer to materialise.

1870-Y26

We're off to bridge the Mississippi once more.

NEW GAME

Welcome to the latest 1870 game. The dealing order for this game is as follows.

Don Smith	16 Gilchrist Way, Braintree, Essex, CM7 7SY
Lyndon Gurr	15b Hedley Street, Maidstone, Kent, ME14 1UG
Willem Moene	Dijkhuizen 4, 1112 SB Diemen, The Netherlands
Mike Hutton	57 Ascension Road, Romford, Essex, RM5 3RT
Adam Romoth	E-mail only - nospam at adam-romoth-de

You start with 420 and a choice of six Private Companies.

Great River Shipping Company	GRSC	Cost	20	Revenue	5
Mississippi River Bridge Company	MRBC	Cost	40	Revenue	10
Southern Cattle Company	SCC	Cost	50	Revenue	10
Gulf Shipping Company	GSC	Cost	80	Revenue	15
St.Louis San Francisco Railway	SLSF	Cost	140	Revenue	n/a
Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad	MKT	Cost	160	Revenue	20

Please refer to your rule books for the full detail on these private companies,

If you might end up buying the SLSF, you should be telling me what you want to set as the par for the public company. The default par will be 100.

The common approach to the bidding process is to indicate what you want to go for (or what you want to avoid) and the maximum you'll pay. Bids will be $5 above the initial price or the last bid, unless you advise otherwise. Some players just say 'buy whatever I'm offered', some also give a total limit on expenditure.

If anyone fancies orders like 'buy any', please let me know if you mean any one (and only one), or any (and all) that are offered to you. It's an easy one to avoid once you know the problems it can cause.

Maps and tile sheets are enclosed for Don, Lyndon and Mike. Willem and Adam can get these from the web site (www.fwtwr.com/18xx/) if they need them. Please be sure to use my tile sheets for this game. Other tile sheets or sources may not use the same tile facings. Note that on the reverse of the tile sheet there is an information panel explaining how to order tile lays for your companies.

After the sale of the Private Companies we'll have the tail end of the first stock round before we hit the first operating round. Enjoy the game.

Carelessness crept in last time. The E and N dropped one further column on the stock market in OR6 when they took out their loans. The GC also moved left in OR7 for the same reason. The B did not retain in OR7, it paid. The N finished with a credit figure of 132, as it got less from the B for the train deal. The SNCF share holdings were a cut and paste remnant from the PO column.

Congratulations to Lionel on the win. Rob was closing but would have needed more than one extra round to make a difference. Mike was pleased to get a '2+2' train into the NER at the last,. But never got the chance to use it. We'll round up next time, so please feel free to have your say.

but none of the '3' trains as yet.

John had asked for a pause if the Diesels came out, but I hadn't offered a pause, knowing that the bank was almost certain to break. As it was, John had shuffled his trains and credit around as much as made sense by the end of the first round, so I carried on and bought a Diesel for the PRR.

Stephen, please do not use compass notation for your tile lays. Geoff, you ordered a 7 for the EKT - I changed it to a 3 as it is a small station hex. The only thing available to buy at the moment is K2. As discounts are no longer offered as this is not part of the start packet, you won't get anywhere offering bids on it. It costs 140.

The best word to describe the finish is close. A couple of hundred between first and second is generally considered close for 18xx. There's less than a hundred to third, and there we have a tie down to the last dollar. That is definitely uncommon.

1st	Pete Campbell	5,972	23.8%
2nd	Lyndon Gurr	5,765	23.0%
3rd=	Willem Moene	5,693	22.7%
	Rob Thomasson	5,693	22.7%
5th	Don Smith	1,978	7.9%

Congratulations to Pete on his win, and to everyone for playing. We'll round it up next time. As for the tie, what makes it even more interesting is that Willem and Rob had exactly the same income in the last round. Rob gained more on share value, and if things had continued he could have moved ahead of Willem, while Lyndon would probably have dropped to fourth. But the time needed was not there.

1856-P26

The first '3' train does come out, but not early enough for some.

Mike ordered 5:E7:5 for his build, which I modified at first to 3:E7:5, thinking that he had just picked the large station version of the tile he wanted. I then thought this was an odd move, as he couldn't connect to another station next time, and realised that 58:E7:5 was the more likely intention. So that's what you've got, whether you wanted it or not!

Simon Robertson (RR, 1st): It's always nice to win! Utrecht is a key location on this map as most of the fastest routes pass through it. So starting there and spreading out seemed to me a good idea. As I managed get a good link to the north, east and south west, I was in a strong position. Jim had good connections at the ends, but wasn't as direct through the middle. John's "outer circle" is good with the right runs, but probably missed out on too much of the middle of the map.

Thanks Keith for running this and everyone else for a good game.

Luzon is one of Jim Reader's maps. Luzon is one of the main islands of the Philippines and the map covers the northern part of the island. Copies of the map are enclosed for all.

Points to watch out for are two towns called San Fernando - 9♣ and 9♦. Remember to check the town carefully to be sure you're thinking of the right one. The K♠ run goes to any port, one of which is San Fernando. It should go without saying that this is the 9♦ town, as the other isn't on the coast! Due to space limitations, some town names are not immediately adjacent to the towns. For example Rizal (9♠) is north of the road with the name below, while Tagaytay (J♥) is east of the road the name is next to. Common sense should prevail.

The best laid plans...

GAME OVER

1st	Pete Campbell	40
2nd	Jim Reader	39
3rd	Mike Hutton	27
4th	Willem Moene	26

Jim Reader (2nd): I think I should have been able to buy the tobacco storage last turn. I had one doubloon, but with the builder bonus and 3 quarries I had the 5 needed to get the tobacco storage. This would take my score to 40 and means Pete won on doubloons. Blast - I thought I had judged it right that I could win last turn but miscounted the victory points available for shipping. Congratulations to Pete who judged the end game better than I and thanks very much for another close game.

The reason Jim didn't buy a Tobacco Storage is there are three in the game, and all three had been bought. The loss of the Building summary, to get the report onto a single page, gave him the chance to mislead himself that they were still available.

Congratulations to Stephen. He got two large buildings, which was two more than anyone else, and manned them as well, and that in itself was likely to give him an edge over everyone else. It turned out to be a wall and an edge. Well done.

ROUND 10

Colin asked why PLANT's build from Lincoln to J49 didn't result in a large payment to HOE. That is because HOE doesn't have track along that line. HOE's connections to Lincoln come from the north west, from H50, and the south east, to L52.

Jim said he wasn't sure what the costs were for marshes, which only reinforces my suggestion that he avoids throwing away old copies of the zine once the month has gone by, as those costs were in the initial game report. Marsh hexes cost +1 per half hex. More importantly, the dark blue 'rivers' are impassable, so he couldn't build directly west from Bremen as intended. Rather than disallow most of his build I ducked south round the end of the estuary to get back onto his planned line.

Tony Bromley (TRIKE, 1st): 'Good game' referred to a balanced map and a good GM, and mostly to competitive opposition.

Bob Coull (JOINT, 3rd): I thought Oita would be the most desirable start and Michael took good advantage of it, but that leaves Tony's points total from Kagoshima looking even more impressive.

Rob Thomasson (REEKIE, 4th): Tony must have really gained at the direct disadvantage of his fellow southern starter Jim, given their final positions. Jim, Bob & I (to say nothing of John Boy) took off each other in the north west to no particular avail. It's more open up north and invading down south as not so easy. I thought I would start the 'less obvious' way - but so did Bob. I should have made contact - always good to communicate. Well done and thanks to all, especially Tony and Keith.

Jim suffered from the classic designer's syndrome - watch others get the best out of it.

PREVIEW

The 1870 has started, but not moved on as I had planned. The idea was to repeat what happened with the 1856 game, and get the first stock round sorted out by e-mail/telephone in this month, but my sale got in the way and time disappeared. So, the new game will have a standard start via the monthly deadline.

Coming issues will see new games of 1861, 1825 and 1837, plus Railway Rivals and Bus Boss. For the 1825 game, someone suggested a multi-unit game. As I have recently started a game with all three units and all the kits on the web site, I thought I would offer the same for the zine. If anyone feels that is too much, do let me know.

Here's the plan for new games due to start in the next issues.

#163: 1861, Railway Rivals (Malaysia Peninsula)
#164: 1825, Bus Boss
#165: 1837

GAME ORDERS

Please observe these guidelines when sending your orders.

- ✱ The game name and game number must be given for each set of orders.
- ✱ Your own name and where relevant, your company name and game colour, must be given for all game orders, preferably at the top of the orders.
- ✱ When you need to refer to other players in a game, you should use their company name and colour if these are present in the game.
- ✱ Do not use both sides of the same sheet of paper for different games.
- ✱ When sending orders via e-mail, make sure they are sent as plain text, with FWTDR or die rolls somewhere in the subject line.
- ✱ E-mail orders should be sent to one address only. You may know of more than one address that can reach me, but they all converge on one mailbox. When orders are sent to more than one source, I have to check they are in fact identical.
- ✱ Leave a reasonable space between orders for different games so that they can be easily separated and filed. If you're typing your orders, put at least three blank lines between orders for different games. I expect a minimum of two inches of paper for each game. On the other hand, please do not submit orders using double-line spacing throughout, as this tends to push a simple set of orders onto two sheets of paper.
- ✱ Remember that the deadlines given are when the orders should reach me, not when orders should be sent. Please do not rely on speedy postal delivery, or on instant e-mail delivery.

Handling NMRs (No Move Received)

- ✱ If you normally post orders to me and I do not have an e-mail address for you, I cannot remind you but will give as much time as possible for late orders to arrive.
- ✱ If I have an e-mail address for you, I will usually send a reminder the day after the deadline, although this is not guaranteed.
- ✱ If you are unable to provide orders straight away, it is of immense help if you can reply to any reminder and let me know when you hope to provide orders.
- ✱ Games will not normally be held over due to a shortage of orders.
- ✱ My actions for a player with no orders depends on the game, but usually involves holding still unless the game has specific rules for NMRs. For Bus Boss and Railway Rivals runs, I will take a brief look at the game and enter the player runs that cost the least, to avoid skewing the results for the other players.
- ✱ If orders arrive once I have adjudicated a game, I may rerun it, but this is entirely at my discretion and depends on how much time I have.

GAME STANDARDS

Games that involve auctions

I interpret auction orders in the following way.

A bid for a specific figure means just that - you will bid that figure and nothing else. If you want to bid above a previous bid and are willing to go to a maximum bid, then order your bid up to that maximum. You will then bid the minimum possible, and keep bidding until you win the auction or reach your maximum. If you are entitled to any discounts, do not deduct the discount before bidding. Any applicable discounts will be deducted after the auction is over.

Bus Boss and Railway Rivals

For Railway Rivals, the games I run use a single building allowance during the building rounds, rather than three separate die rolls.

During the operating rounds, Bus Boss scoring is used for both games. This shares 30 points between all entrants. If only one player enters a run, they get the full 30 points (less any payments they need to make to rivals). Players who complete a run in the same turn share placings. If shared placings mean that points cannot be shared evenly, the poorer player at the time of the run gains the odd point. If the players are tied before the run, the odd point is discarded.

When ordering for operating rounds, you should always list the runs in their proper sequence. You should not list runs you are not entering, as this often makes orders more confusing. If one or more runs is conditional on joint runs or other arrangements being accepted, the conditional order should appear against the run so that I can check the conditions before proceeding.

The maximum you may pay any single player in a run is ten points. If the length of the route you need to enter a run is more than twice the shortest route of any other entrant, your entry will be rejected, but that run will count towards the number that you are allowed to enter.

Rules for carried over runs:

Bus Boss:

The limit of five runs applies at all times.

Railway Rivals:

If 1 run is carried over, then you are still limited to 4 runs.
If 2 or 3 are carried over, then you can enter 5 runs.
If 4 or 5 are carried over, then you can enter 6 runs.
If 6 or 7 are carried over, then you can enter 7, and so on, but the referee may need sorting out if it gets this bad (i.e. building allowances were too small).
In all these cases, you can choose your runs from all those available.
